Living near the city with allotment garden views.

Impressions

Image notes

1

Green space, even near the city.

The three apartment buildings are situated next to allotment gardens and yet, at the same time, are well connected to Zurich city centre.

3

Green connection.

Green awnings create a visual link between the buildings and the surrounding area.

2

Interconnected.

The individual buildings are connected by a semi-basement (combined parking garage and cellar space).
